The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

A good measure of thanks for the spoonful of rain that has already fallen.

The ancient city, Vergennes, had its first drunk in court this week, that is, the first since the licensed saloons were opened to the thirsty. What a model and puritanical city is this that Vermont has within its borders!

John W. Titecomb, formerly connected with Vermont's fish and game interests, will proceed to teach the Argentinians how to develop their fish and game. From his long experience, the Argentine Republic can learn much.

When a church resorts to a boycott what can be said of strikers who do the same thing? The Methodist church of Oswego, N. Y., sent out a circular to its members recently, which virtually said, buy your merchandise of members of our church. Is it a fine scheme to increase church membership?

Many of the smaller towns of the state are showing a shrinkage in their grand lists this year, which they are endeavoring to explain away by saying that acts of the recent legislature gave exemptions which caused the shrinkage. Undoubtedly this accounts for a part of the cutting down, but not for all of it. And it is not a very pleasant sign to note that those towns are at such a standstill that they cannot overcome the loss caused by the comparatively small exemptions.

PREVALENCE OF CATARRH

Growing Use of Hyomei Will Soon Show a Decrease of This Disease.

Statistics show that at least 97 out of every 100 persons in this state are suffering from catarrh in some form. While the disease is one of the most common with which the medical profession has to contend, it also is one of the most dangerous. This is owing to its tendency to affect the bronchial tubes, causing consumption and other diseases of the respiratory organs.

Prior to the discovery of Hyomei, every method of treatment for the cure of catarrh had been found worthless. This can be clearly proven by the weekly statements published in every large city by the Board of Health, showing a great increase in the death rate from diseases of the respiratory organs, and the startling growth in the number of persons afflicted with such troubles.

The discovery of Hyomei and its increased use has already reduced the percentage of persons suffering from catarrh. This wonderful remedy is the simplest and most pleasant of all treatments. Just put a little Hyomei in the pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, breathe through the inhaler for ten minutes four times a day. Relief will be seen from the first treatment; cure will soon follow. It is the true treatment for diseases of the respiratory organs.

Scientific and medical men recommend it. Leading druggists have so much faith in it that they guarantee a cure or they will refund the money. In this city the Red Cross Pharmacy is selling it upon that plan, so that any of our readers can use Hyomei without its costing them a cent unless it cures. Can there be a fairer way?

KIDNEY-DEATHS LEAD.

Alcoholic Kidney Remedies Much to Blame.

Greatest Strain on Urine Test By Insurance.

The overwhelming demand for Kidney-Wort Tablets over that for all other kidney remedies at all the large drug stores shows that kidney sufferers have waked up to the great danger of taking liquid remedies that contain alcohol.

Ask any one who has attempted an insurance examination, and he will tell you that the greatest possible stress is laid on the urine examination.

If one's "kidneys are against him," as the examiner says, three out of five persons refused, he is a bad risk.

And it is not surprising when the monthly death reports of New England cities give kidney troubles as accountable for more fatalities than any other disease, not excepting consumption.

Before trying for insurance, test your urine yourself.

At any time, if at all suspicious of your kidneys, satisfy yourself of their condition. Nothing is easier. Put some morning urine in a bottle, let it stand twenty-four hours; if a reddish sediment settles at the bottom, or the urine is cloudy or milky, your kidneys are diseased. You should lose no time in making them well.

Nothing can be more suicidal at such a time than to take any liquid remedy that has alcohol added to enable it to keep. Kidney-Wort Tablets is the one remedy that may be taken with perfect assurance that it contains no trace of alcohol or mineral drugs.

The Tablets will positively cure that frequent desire to urinate, pains in the back, swelling of the feet and ankles, retention of urine, scalding pain in the bladder, wetting the bed, and such rheumatic affections as sciatitis, lumbago, due to uric acid poisons left in the blood by the sick kidneys.

Tomorrow the nation pays a tribute of gratitude to those who fought for the stars and stripes on battlefields of many wars. While we are apt to be unmindful of the significance of the day, its meaning will never be lost sight of so long as history remains. Of late years there has been a commendable effort made to keep alive the fires of patriotism and to fasten upon the minds of the younger generation the underlying significance of Memorial day. We refer to the pre-Memorial exercises that are held each year in the public schools. Such efforts are entirely praiseworthy for they tend very materially toward good citizenship.

James E. Burke of Burlington has attained what he has been seeking for so long—the office of mayor of the city of Burlington. It has been a hard pull and a long pull, but the victory is finally his. For persistence Mr. Burke has shown that he has few equals when it comes to office seeking. As the Supreme court of the state has decided that the office is rightfully the honor of Mr. Burke, the acting mayor, Dr. Hawley, will retire, undoubtedly with the good grace he is capable of showing. It is certain that in leaving the office of the executive of Burlington, Dr. Hawley carries with him the esteem of a great majority of the people of that city after an upright, progressive administration.

According to the Supreme Court there is a place to which persons convicted of a second offence of intoxication may be sent, in case of failure to pay their fines, and that place is the house of correction, the superintendent of that institution to the contrary, however. Such is the decision which the Supreme Court rendered yesterday. The decision was just what most of the people of the state who had given the matter any consideration thought that it would be, and practically all the students of law in the state considered that Supt. Morgan was making a bad break in refusing to admit Andrew Rogers who was sentenced to the state institution from the Montpelier city court. Supt. Morgan was planning his belief on a decidedly weak foundation, as the result shows. Henceforth the doors of the state institution at Rutland will be open to any persons convicted of a second offence of intoxication, who fail to pay the fines assessed.

The contract for building the sewerage system in Fair Haven has been awarded to Golden & Hall of Troy, N. Y., whose bid was $33,380.18. Work will be begun June 1 and must be completed before December 1.

The Rutland Retail Clerks' Union held a meeting recently to discuss the matter of the closing of the stores Saturday, Memorial Day. The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That whenever a holiday comes on Saturday the merchants will be released from the obligations which they took when they signed the holiday schedule."

Anna G. Sawyer, who has been granted by Judge Dickey of New York, on complaint of an action of annulment of marriage from Herbert K. Sawyer of Bradford on statutory grounds and bigamy. Mrs. Sawyer says she was married to Sawyer at Lebanon, N. H., in November, 1900, not knowing that he was already married until May 15 last.

William T. Dewey, chairman of the Montpelier license commissioners, is authority for the statement that it was brought out at the hearing Monday night that the night patrolmen reported one-tenth less drunkenness in the city under the license law than under prohibition. Every man intoxicated is now arrested while under the old law he was sent off the streets.

When a Burlington reporter hunted up Mayor Burke of that city yesterday he found him shoeing a horse and the new mayor gave his news on municipal government between the emphatic strokes of a hammer which deftly fashioned on the shoe. Mr. Burke said he favored municipal ownership of electric lights on general principles, but that the present project ought to be considered with much serious thought before final action.

There was a small sized strike in the works of the Vermont shade-roller company at Vergennes Monday, eight boys who have been tending laths, striking for $5 instead of $4 a week, as they have been receiving heretofore. Their demands were not granted so they immediately quit work. One of them was given the option by his father of resuming labor or going to school, so he promptly returned to work. The others, at last accounts, were still out.

The Stamford Chemical Co. lost about 500 cords of wood yesterday by a fire which was started while some of the choppers were engaged in blasting rocks. The men were at work near the old charcoal kilns when the fire started. All help from the works was summoned and after a long hard fight succeeded in preventing the fire from spreading into the standing timber. Five of the men were left on the scene all night to prevent any outbreak of the flames. The total loss to the company will be over $1,000.

And still the Croakers Croak.

And still the croakers croak. Hardwick will boom for a year or two but then will relapse into innocuous desuetude. Why bless your little shrinking, shriveled souls, don't exhibit yourself by such foolish talk. Hardwick's prosperity is just as certain as anything in this uncertain world can be—it isn't founded on a sand base but on solid rock.—Hardwick Gazette.

JUNGLES AND JESTS.

The Maiden and the Smudge.
There was a fair maiden named Fudge
Whose lily white cheek bore a smudge;
She gave it a smooch,
And it spread to her ear,
And the sorely vexed maiden cried,
"Fudge!"
